

I am adamantly against a weakening of this law. Since being on the list my home has been more peaceful. I was getting calls at all hours of the night and half the time no one would answer because they had you on automatic dial. That is truly annoying especially when you are eating or sick. Please keep the law the way it is!!!!